DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to the Appeal Brief filed on 12/03/07. Claims 16-54 have been cancelled. Claims 1, 4, 6, 8-14 and 72-75 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1, 4, 6, 8-14, 72-75 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Claim 1 is directed to "electronically supplies the matching workers' compensation claim numbers determined to exist to corresponding ones of the sending provider computers, wherein said providers use said supplied claim numbers to prepare the billings; automatically sends an indication of the lack of determining the workers' compensation claim number to at least one of a plurality of payer computers, each being associated with a different payer, for each matching workers' compensation claim number determined not to exist".

The closest prior art of record discloses:

a) High-tech sleuths by Leslie Werstein Hann. Best's Review. (Property /casualty insurance edition). Oldwick: Nov.1998. Vol.99, Iss.7; pg.83, 3 pgs.

b) Risk & Insurance "Technology : Unlocking the Neural Network" by John Mutch, January 1999.

However, none of the cited prior art above teaches or fairly suggests "electronically supplies the matching workers' compensation claim numbers determined to exist to corresponding ones of the sending provider computers, wherein said providers use said supplied claim numbers to prepare the billings; automatically sends an indication of the lack of determining the workers' compensation claim number to at least one of a plurality of payer computers, each being associated with a different payer, for each matching workers' compensation claim number determined not to exist".

Claims 4, 6, 8-14 and 72-75 incorporate the features of claim 1 through its dependency, and is also allowed for the same reasons given above.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

3. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney Edward J. Howard on 2/19/08. During this interview, Attorney agreed to cancel claims 16-54. No further questions were discussed.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
